Femininity can be a powerful thing.

Femininity is not just lipstick, stylish hairdos, and trendy clothes. It is divine energy of humanity. It finds expression in your qualities of your capacity to love, your spirituality, delicacy, radiance, sensitivity, creativity, charm, graciousness, gentleness, dignity, and quiet strength.

Femininity is part of the God-given divinity within each of you. It is your incomparable power and influence to do good. You can, through your supernal gifts, bless the lives of children, women, and men. Be proud of your womanhood. Enhance it. Use it to serve others.

HERE ARE 6 TIPS ON TURNING FEMININITY INTO POWER.

01

Know the difference.

You see, when you're in your masculine energy, you're actually repelling men! You've got to balance your feminine and masculine energies and stay within your feminine energy to attract a genuine connect with a man. If you're leading in the relationship and always seeking your man's attention, you might just drive him away.

02

The receptive mode.

Here's the thing: Although men certainly don't mind the occasional gift, they want to be the giver in the relationship. Of course, this doesn't just apply to gift-giving.

Learning how to stay in the receptive feminine energy mode, makes him want to pursue you, contact you, and commit.

FALSE BELIEFS

What negative — and false — ideas do you hold about femininity?

03

Let your voice linger.

People love being around those who use kind words, encourage others, and make them feel loved and supported.

If you've ever heard of a man cheating on his beautiful girlfriend or wife with someone a bit less conventionally attractive, he may have turned to the other woman because she gave him attention and made him feel desired through her words.

Here's the thing: women want approval, men want attention.

To enhance his attraction for you, use 10 positive words for every not so positive 1.

04

Be well groomed.

Even though we've been told not to judge a book by its cover, we can't help but judge people by their appearance to some degree.

Proper grooming and hygiene shows that you're healthy, you take care of yourself, and that in itself is super attractive to men.

Wear feminine colors.

One of the quickest ways to appear softer and more feminine is to dress the part.

Dressing in soft colors activates his hero instinct, makes him want to protect you, and makes him feel secure in his masculine energy—all very good things!

06 Smell Sweet

Get into his heart through his nose. Whenever he smells something that smells even the teeniest bit like your perfume, you'll be on his mind.

- ✓ Smelling sweet makes it easier for him to make fond memories of you.
- ✓ Your scent can remind him of how feminine you are.
